

Role Profile

Role title: Process Technician
Department: Operations - Enzyme Manufacturing Plant
Responsible to: Plant Manager
Responsible for: N/A

Purpose of the role:

Manufacturing activities within our enzyme production plant

Key result areas:

1. On time despatch
2. Customer complaints
3. Zero Incidents/Accidents

Need to know:

- Operate effectively, efficiently, and safely all plant/equipment needed in production of speciality enzyme
- Food Safety, HACCP and GMP
- FLT operator
- Training in the awareness and relevance of their individual activities in contributing to food safety, emphasising the importance of effective communication

Need to be able to do: (Key activities)

- Preparing and running of fermentation processes up to 8,000L scale defined by SOPs and production records with strict adherence to safety
- Trouble shooting and solving manufacturing process problems
- Carry out routine cleaning and maintenance on plant equipment to minimise unplanned downtime
- Working with your team on continuous improvement and lean manufacturing initiatives
- Be conversant with and adopt the procedures stated in the Quality, Environmental Management System (QEMS) Manual and its supporting documents
- Carry out the responsibilities stated in the Managing Director's Health & Safety Policy

Expected behaviour:

- Analytical thinking
- High quality work on time
- Results driven
- Planning & Organising
- Teamwork
- Communication